Norse Home Privacy Notice Effective June 1, 2018

THE FOLLOWING NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW YOUR MEDICAL INFORMATION MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED, AND HOW YOU MAY GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION.

PLEASE REVIEW THIS INFORMATION CAREFULLY.

- Your confidential health care information may be released to other health care professionals within Norse Home for the purpose of providing you with quality health care.
- Your confidential health care information may be released to your insurance provider for the purpose of the organization receiving payment for providing you with needed health care services.
- Your confidential health care information may be released to public or law enforcement officials in the event of an investigation in which you are a victim of abuse, a crime or domestic violence.
- Your confidential health care information may be released to other health care providers in the event you need emergency care.
- Your confidential health care information may be released to a public health organization or federal organization in the event of a communicable disease or to report a defective device or untoward event to a biological product (food or medication).
- Your confidential health care information may not be released for any other purpose than that which is identified in this notice.
- Your confidential health care information may be released only after receiving written authorization from you. You may revoke your permission to release confidential health care information at any time.
- You may be contacted by Norse Home to remind you of any appointments, health care treatment options or other health services that may be of interest to you.
- You have the right to restrict the use of your confidential health care information. However, Norse Home may choose to refuse your restriction if it is in conflict of providing you with quality health care or in the event of an emergency situation.
- You have the right to receive confidential communication about your health status.
